Printing Office Etiquette.

Out of the bigness and the fullness of our soul we feel like pouring a lot of valuable information to some people who are desirous of visiting a printing office for about the ten thousandth time, in order to make your visit exquisitely delightful.

On entering the office you should first go to the case where the compositor is at work; that is what the compositor is there for, to entertain visitors, and it is always a sign of good breeding if you will look over the compositor's shoulder and read the copy, and you will do the editor a favor if you will nose around and find other copy and read it, as that will save the trouble of putting it in the paper.

Those little pieces of metal you see in the case are type. There are a great many different kind of them and each kind has a separate box. To get a good look at them you should pick them up, sift them through your fingers and see how completely they will mix. It will not take many hours for the printer to pick them out and place them back where they belong.

That long thing you see full of type standing on its end is a galley. That's a funny name; but you should finger the type in it and see how easily it falls down. The galley is a good thing for you to rest your arm on. It does not matter if you pie the whole galley of type—printers like pie.

Talking about pie, if you want to see pie that is pie, just step over to that large stone. You will surely see a bunch of type that you would like to inspect; which you will do by picking it up. Of course it will fall to pieces, and then it's pie. But in does not matter, you are entertaining the printer. The stone is a good thing to wallow on, and the more you lounge on it the more pie you will make.

Now, if it is press day and you want to show off to the best advantage, you should not fail to read the pages as they come from the press. The editor desires that every one should know what the paper contains before it is ready for delivery, and if everybody would call around to the office and read the paper it would save the trouble of mailing it.

By observing these simple rules you may think that the editor is a "bear," but it is only his way, and you should call again to "jolly" him.

Sunday School Picnic.

The Hayti Baptist Sunday school will give a basket picnic at the park on the south side of town on Tuesday, July 20. Everybody invited to attend and give the children one day of fun and pleasure. Everybody expected to bring a well filled basket. Refreshments of all kind on the ground.

Committee: Mrs. Pearl Gaskins, Ed Woods and Daxie Hayes.

The public square has been broken and leveled down, and as soon as the fence can be put up grass will be sown. We are informed that if all who signed donations would pay the amount they agreed to pay, that there would be plenty of funds to complete the fence, and it is hoped they will pay up at once.

The sheriff and his deputies are scouring the country and beating the bushes making their final "round-up" for July term of circuit court, which will convene at Caruthersville next Monday. We are informed the docket is arranged for five weeks session.

The most durable machine made is the NEW HOME. We also handle the ball bearing Singer, the WILL C. FREE, the New Ideal, the Eldredge, the Wilcox and Gibbs. With over 45 years handling and repairing machines, we are competent to tell you which is the best. Chas. Goodrich, Caruthersville.

John Bay, ex-agent for the Waters-Pierce Oil company in this city, has entered suit against the company for $10,000, claiming that he has been damaged to that extent by derogatory reports circulated by the company.—Twice-a-Week Democrat.

Ice users should get our coupon books. Saves worry and time making change, avoids mistakes, always ready. Terms cash. Money refunded any time. Books carried on wagon. Hayti Storage. 30tf

Now is a good time to have the Herald sent to your friends and relatives. They will enjoy it more than a letter, because it tells all the news.

In Memorium.

Hall of New Era Lodge, No. 352 I.O.O.F., Hayti, Missouri, July 10, 1909.

To The Brothers and Members of the Order, Greeting:

We are called upon to mourn the loss of our brother and friend, W. H. Morris, who departed this life Tuesday, July 6, 1909, aged 74 years, 7 months and 19 days.

Brother Morris was initiated into the I.O.O.F. at Metropolis, Ill., in the year 1865, since which time until the last few years he has been an active Odd Fellow. He was a charter member of Justice Lodge, No. 399, of Caruthersville, Mo., in which he held membership until that lodge surrendered its charter, when he received a Grand Lodge card. But on account of age and failing health he neglected to unite with a subordinate lodge. Hence he was not at the time of his death affiliated with any lodge.

But we, as Odd Fellows, feel that his long standing and interest in our order, in which he had spent his best and most useful years, entitled him to be cherished in our memories, wherefore be it

Resolved, By New Era Lodge, No. 352, I.O.O.F., that in the death of Brother Morris our order has lost an old and honorable member, our county and community a respected and useful citizen, his wife a devoted companion and his children a fond father.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his bereaved family, that our charter be draped in mourning and the members wear the usual mourning for a period of thirty days;

That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and a copy be sent to the widow; also that copies be sent to the Hayti Herald, the Twice-a-Week Democrat and the Triple Link for publication.

Fraternally submitted,

D. D. Harbert, P. G.,
J. M. Argo, P. G., Committee,
P. S. Ravenstein, P. G.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters having remained in this office uncalled for 30 days, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office unless delivered within one week. A fee of 1 cent will be collected on each letter advertised. When calling for same please say advertised. June 26.

B. L. Guffy, Postmaster.

Mr. S. A. Bonit
Mrs. C. Barnes
Mr. Will Raleigh
Mr. Joe Skaggs.

Civic League Play.

The Civic League will give their comic and patriotic entertainment Thursday, July 22.

The ladies are using the proceeds of these plays for a good purpose, and our people should encourage them.

At the meeting of the school board Monday night, it was decided to have the grounds broken and planted to grass. The clerk's salary was raised to $25, and Harvey Ferrell was appointed school commissioner, in place of D. J. Heard, resigned.

On July 7, at Portageville, Mrs. A. J. Fagan lost her hand bag, containing $10, diamond brooch, gold watch, silver manicure scissors and pair of gold spectacles. The hand bag, manicure scissors and spectacles have been recovered.

We are closing out our Columbia, Victor and Zonophone 10 inch records at 45 cents each. We have 1,000 records in stock. Also a good discount on graphophones. Chas. Goodrich, Caruthersville.

Why don't the City Authorities order people to clean up and cut weeds? There is no use for the city to be in its present condition. Hot weather is here and the health of the people demands that the city be kept clean.

When you see a cross mark on your paper, made with a pencil, it tells you that your subscription is out and we ask you to renew at once. Not hearing from you promptly, we will stop the paper.

I. Kohn is having another stretch of concrete walk put down on the square, 10x50 feet on the J. M. Falkoff corner. The east side will now be the best improved part of the square. Harvey Ferrell is the contractor.

Good fresh, clean meats, good weights and courteous treatment is the motto at Chas. Morgan's butcher shop. 37tf

Obituary.

At Rest, in the beautiful City of God.

A. H. Dunn was born in Bollinger County, Missouri, at Lutesville, April 17, 1878, and died June 18, 1909, age 31 years, 2 months and 2 days.

He had lived in Hayti about seven years. July 23, 1905, he was married to Miss Mamie A. Oates and two children, a son and a daughter, aged three and one year, were born to them.

He was a devoted husband and father, and a true friend.

Mr. Dunn had been in failing health for many months, and those near to him interceded in his behalf until he embraced the word of God, and death found him ready and willing to pass beyond, where sorrow, sickness, death and parting is no more.

It was in the twilight shadows of June 16 that his family last saw him, homeward bound, walking through the broad yard. He was then sick with the headache, which never abated. His next walk was over the river and through the pearly portal that ever stand ajar.

There is an hour that never sleeps beneath the shades of night;

There is an ear that never shuts when sinks the beams of light;

There is an arm that never tires when human strength gives way;

There is a love that never fails when earthly loves decay—

But there is a power which men can wield when mortal aid is vain,

That eye, that arm, that love to reach that listening ear to gain—

That power is prayer which soars on high, through Jesus to God's throne, And moves the hand which moves the world, to bring salvation down.

A FRIEND AND RELATIVE.

A Card of Thanks.

I desire to express the sincere thanks of myself and sons and daughters to all friends who so kindly assisted at my home during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. Lou Morris.

Special Notice

I take this opportunity to inform the public that I have purchased the saloon business formerly known as the Tom Johnson Half-Way House, at Caruthersville. I will appreciate the patronage of my friends and acquaintances, and invite you to call and see me when in town.

Fred Morgan.

The curfew bell has been put in place, and will ring each evening at eight o'clock. This is a warning to the boys that they ought to be at home. They may think this hard now, but when they are men they will think differently.

Mr. Van Winkle, who bought the Nicolaides farm, near Stanley, has sold out and will return to Illinois. He says his wife does not have good health here is his reason for selling.

For sale at a bargain—one of the nicest residences in town, corner, near business, 7 rooms, 2 stories, 2 or 3 lots and 4 lots on opposite side of street. J. N. Clemens, Tyler or C. W. Frick, Hayti. 5tf

Sunday the 18th at the M. E. church at 11 o'clock, subject of the pastor, F. G. Fallin, will be: The New Birth. At 8 p. m. Witness of the Spirit to the Fact of the New Birth.

Bridge timber and lumber of all kinds, 2 and 2½ in. oak flooring, sidewalk lumber, oak and cypress, dressed and rough palings, always on hand at reasonable prices. C. W. Frick.

Miss Marie Woody of Cape Girardeau came down Sunday, on a visit to Miss Joy Speer and other friends at Braggadocio. Miss Speer met her at the depot in Hayti.

Clothing cleaned and pressed and all work guaranteed. Leave orders at Gaskins' barber shop or my residence. J. M. Argo. 27tf

Mrs. Elsie Williams was called to her home in Memphis the first of the week, on account of the illness of Granville Gwin, who is making his home with her husband, Lee.

Gum and maple boxing $12.50 a 1,000, 16ft. cypress fencing $14 a 1,000. Everything else in proportion. C. W. Frick. 11tf

Mrs. Florence Hatcher and Mrs. Hume Mayes were out from Caruthersville Sunday.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

There's always one store in every town that pulls just a little harder for your trade than some other store---that appreciates your trade just a little more and offers you just a little better inducements? Certainly you do.

Does it not seem right to yourself that you should buy your goods as cheaply as possible and get full value for every dollar you spend? Certainly so.

Then is it not plain to you that I could not afford to advertise these facts to you and tell you of my methods unless I could make good and prove that I am right.

Think this over and come to my store and see for your self. Let's talk matters over and figure on a bill of goods.

Come and convince your self that my store is a good place to trade.
